

Murray River

This is a 13 day tour is on road caravan and motor home friendly.

Starting in Khancoban NSW, our tour will follow the Murray River through such towns as Albury, Echuca, Wentworth, all the way to Goolwa in South Australia.

The Murray River is Australia's longest river with a length of 2508 kilometres, and together with its tributaries, forms part of the Murray – Darling River System.

Join us on an epic 2 week adventure down the Murray. Discover how life used to be like in the Snowy Mountains. Find out who "The Man from Snowy River" really was.

Enjoy a relaxing river cruise on a paddle steamer and marvel at early 1900's engineering designed to make the river easier to navigate.

Also, will visit the largest military museum in country, as well as enjoy the tranquillity of The Coorong with its abundant bird life.
